NOVEMBER IN VIRGINIA

As we step into November, it's the perfect time to embrace the fall season and the vibrant communities that make up the Mark Dana family. With properties spanning some of the most scenic and charming areas of Virginia—from the rolling hills of Berryville to the coastal charm of Exmore —our communities, though geographically spread, are united by a sense of belonging and togetherness.

November brings a mix of local events, seasonal activities, and opportunities to connect with neighbors and experience the unique flavors of fall. Here are some local community events and highlights from across Virginia to help you make the most of this beautiful time of year.

Local Festivals & Farmers Markets

November is a fantastic time to visit local farmers markets before they close for the season or to catch the tail end of fall festivals. In Henrico look out for the local fall craft fairs where you can pick handmade goods and seasonal treats. Residents near Parksley and Exmore on the Eastern Shore may enjoy coastal markets offering fresh produce, artisanal crafts, and seafood that reflect local heritage.

If you're in the Shenandoah Valley areas like Elkton, Grottoes, or Buena Vista, be sure to visit nearby fall festivals or scenic hikes that highlight the region's natural beauty. Take advantage of the crisp air and colorful leaves before winter sets in!

Gatherings & Holiday Kickoffs

As Thanksgiving approaches, many localities kick off the holiday season with tree lighting ceremonies and community feasts. Check out Warrenton's Holiday Parade (12/6) or the holiday craft shows in Craigsville and Berryville for festive shopping and family fun.

For those in Lexington and Aylett, November is the perfect time to volunteer at a local food drive or ensure that everyone has a wonderful Thanksgiving, and your involvement can make a difference!

Staying Connected Across VA

No matter where you're located—from the peaceful surroundings of Raphine to the historic streets of Locust Grove—Mark Dana communities share a common thread: a commitment to fostering a warm and inviting environment. We may be spread across the State, but we're one community at heart. Whether you're attending a local festival or simply enjoying time with family and friends, we encourage you to embrace the spirit of togetherness this November.

Urbanna Oyster Festival, November 1-2, 2024

As the season of gratitude arrives, we want to thank each and every one of you for being a part of the Mark Dana community. We hope you take advantage of the wonderful happenings around you and find joy in the connections and opportunities this time of year offers.

Happy November!
