SHOW YOUR HEART SOME LOVE THIS FEBRUARY

February is known for hearts, Valentine's cards, and reminders to take care of our physical health—but it's also a great time to check in on our emotional heart. Just like the rest of your body, your mind needs care, rest, and support to stay strong.

Whether you're spending the month with family, friends, or enjoying some quiet time on your own, a little self-care can go a long way—and it doesn't have to cost a thing.

Healthy Hearts Start with Simple Habits

Taking care of your mental health often looks a lot like taking care of your physical heart. Small, everyday habits can help you feel more balanced and calm:

- Keep a steady routine. Regular meals and sleep help your mind and body stay in sync.
- Move a little each day. A short walk, stretching, or light activity supports both heart and brain health.

- Stay connected. A friendly call, text, or wave to a neighbor helps reduce stress and loneliness.

Take breaks. Reading, listening to music, or enjoying a quiet moment gives your mind time to reset.

It's Okay to Ask for Support

Just like you'd see a doctor if your heart didn't feel right, it's okay to reach out when your emotions feel heavy. Talking to someone can make a real difference, and free, confidential help is always available.

- Call or text 988 to reach the 988 Suicide & Crisis Lifeline—available 24/7 across Virginia and the U.S.
- Prefer texting? Text HOME to 741741 to connect with the Crisis Text Line.

These services are for anyone who needs support—during difficult moments or just when life feels overwhelming.

More Ways to Care for Your Emotional Heart

If you're looking for ongoing support or information, these trusted resources are available statewide and nationally:

- NAMI (National Alliance on Mental Illness) offers a free HelpLine at 1-800-950-6264, or text NAMI to 62640 for guidance and resources.
- NAMI Virginia provides free programs and support groups throughout the state.
- Dial 2-1-1 to connect with local services such as counseling options, food assistance, transportation help, and more.

A Little Love Goes a Long Way

This February, remember that caring for your heart includes caring for your mental well-being. Small steps—getting rest, staying connected, and asking for help when needed—are simple ways to show yourself some love.

Because a healthy heart isn't just about what it does—it's about how you feel.
